

Nirala Chatrawas

Nirala Chatrawas the hostel for 1st year male students of our prestigious institute National Institute of Foundry and Forge Technology. Our hostel is provided with 72 rooms which can accommodate 144 students. Rooms are equipped with latest furniture along with separate cupboards and plenty of space. The rooms are supplied with 24 hours electricity. The hostel consists of two separate floors each consisting open air balcony with continuous water supplying aqua guards. The terrace is fitted with tanks to meet the daily demands of students. Our hostel is provided with separate ground with plenty of space. There is facility for indoor games like table tennis to play inside hostel. Our hostel has a common room with an LCD TV with DTH connection. The mess is located beside the hostel which is well furnished and students are provided with healthy and delicious food. The hostel is provided with guards for proper security. The hostel has different committees to manage maintenance, cleanliness, health.